With this massive injection of cash and confidence the Global Fund has a perfect opportunity to step up and support all countries to invest more in high impact strategies and programmes that address gender equality. Gender inequality is a key driver of HIV, TB and malaria and is stopping countries and communities from achieving their goals. Now is the time for the Global Fund to double down and deliver for women and girls in all our diversity. The Global Fund’s current strategy emphasises the centrality of promoting & protecting human rights and gender equality (in the 3rd of its 4 Strategic Objectives. Join us to engage in lively discussions with key members of the Global Fund Secretariat staff and the NGO delegation to the Board on:

- How the replenishment translates into more action around Strategic Objective 3 across the Global Fund’s portfolio and work
- Update on catalytic funding & key decisions at the Global Fund Board meeting 14-15 November
- New human rights strategic initiatives linked to technical assistance
- New technical briefs
